You will see that the houses for the pigeons are like the houses for the people. Then we descend into the center of the earth in the Kaymakli Underground City one of the largest and the deepest of 200 others in Cappadocia. After this, we drive to Mustafapasa through the unspoiled villages of Cappadocia, surrounded by the "table-top" mountains. On the way, we visit the Ayvali Village. We continue to Mustafapaşa (Sinassos), an old Greek town with its spectacular old Greek houses; very fine examples of late Greek settlements and architecture. We drive to Urgup taking lunch at the local restaurant.

After lunch our next stop is Red Valley. We walk for about 5 km in one of the most attractive valleys of Cappadocia: Red Valley, with its fabulous volcanic rock formations, is in the heart of Cappadocia but away from the tourist crowd.
